Miller and Miller Will Move Sash and Door Factory Over the River.

Messrs, Miller & Miller, extensive manufacturers of sash, blinds, all interior house finanings, boxes, furniture, etc., are now located on South Sixth Street. Their business has grown so rapidly for the past few years until they find it absolutely necessary to provide for much more room. They could not find in crowded Richmond the necessary room located just to suit, and they turned their eyes some time ago across the river.

The concern has purchased in Man-chester about five acres and have options on as much more space as they will need for their immense business. The lang of located between Fifth and Sixth Streets, where ample railway facilities and the assurance of a sufficiency of side track-age make it a very desirable site for the business.
